

New APRACA Chairman

MR. KIM VADA is currently a General Director of Banking Supervision of the National Bank of Cambodia (NBC). Prior to this post, he has served as Deputy Director General, Director and Deputy Director of the Banking Supervision Department. His thirty-three year service has been committed to the banking system reform in Cambodia. In these last few years, Mr. Kim has been actively participating as a prominent speaker in various conferences and events in the country and international, pertaining the regulatory framework in banking and microfinance supervision and the mobile banking services. And, apart from the work with central bank, he was also a lecturer in few well-known universities in Cambodia. He owns a master degree of Business Administration from Charles Sturt University of Australia since 2003.